

On behalf of the Iowa Dental Association, I wish to request that the FCC recognize the unique relationship that members of professional and trade associations maintain with their voluntary organizations.

It is essential that the FCC maintain the "established business relationship" as it relates to trade and professional associations. The loss of recognition of this unique relationship will be bad for business forcing associations to undertaking costly "written consent" processes that serve no purpose other than raising costs to to our members.